

CSB 2

THE SUN Thursday, November 11, 1992

THE Sun SAYS

The Big Lie

WE'VE got so little for any MPs who are lying for their votes.

Mr. Labov's victory Chris Bryant is a big lie of the day. The public can't be treated as a herd of sheep. A big issue as the European Commission is damaged.

Mr. Labov might be all right for thinking the winner of Pop Idol, but what about the other MPs who are clever enough to understand a treaty?

What a poisonous pill!

Mr. Labov says the Big Lie about those who insist on being allowed to vote on such a massive change in our way of life.

He says it's a shameless lie because it's not true at all.

The Labour Party should be more aware.

Labour wants to have a referendum with an EU treaty to be formed, modern, honest and accurate.

We just don't want to get locked into a dangerous and unworkable agreement that would destroy our independence as a nation.

If Bryant can't get in close with them, he'll never be able to understand something as tricky as Pop Idol.

Tax point

FOR a "new boy" Michael Howard did well against Tony Blair.

Mr. Blair's Prime Minister's Questions as Tony Blair saw him all the way on the head.

Under Labour, the cost of running the Government has risen by 10 per cent - a staggering extra £1 billion.

Who joins the ODI? The poor old taxpayer.

Blair drags up ancient history by accusing Howard about the unpopular Tory poll tax.

Who were when happened in the Eighties? What about Labour's sky-high 21st-century council tax?

That even had members taking to the streets in protest.

Blow her out

THE silence from Margaret Hodge is deafening.

Not one word of apology came from the lips of the Minister for Children yesterday.

Her diatribe this against a man at the centre of the child abuse scandal goes uncorrected.

For that alone, any minister would deserve the sack.

Hodge is hanging on to her job by a thread.

To incompetence, hypocrisy, arrogance and unscrupulousness we must add the charge of rank bad mother.

Hodge should be shot.

THE SOHAM MURDER

CLAIRE NORTON

Lawyer helping parents to reach court stage

LUCY TUCK

Witness and husband's 'Yes Miss Dabbers'

We saw the girls

THE TEACHERS CLEVER PALS WERE LOYAL

MOLLY and Jessica were loyal friends who would have stood up for each other, their teacher told the court.

Mr. Pederson, who taught the girls in year five at St Andrew's Primary School, told the pair were clever and shy.

Mr. Pederson said the girls were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

Mr. Pederson said the girls were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

Mr. Pederson said the girls were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

Mr. Pederson said the girls were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

Mr. Pederson said the girls were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

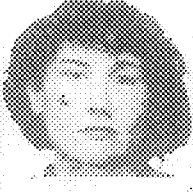

Mr. Pederson said the girls were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

Mr. Pederson said the girls were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

Mr. Pederson said the girls were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

Evidence Mrs. Pederson at court yesterday

By JOHN HARRIS, SOUTH HAMPSHIRE JOURNALIST, UK

BEST friends Holly Wells and Jessica Chapman were last seen walking arm in arm and without a care, the Old Bailey heard yesterday.

A string of witnesses reported seeing the girls in the area of the school. Mrs. Pederson, who taught the girls in year five at St Andrew's Primary School, told the court they were loyal and would have stood up for each other.

Footpath

The girls were walking on a path near the school when they were last seen.

The girls were walking on a path near the school when they were last seen.

The girls were walking on a path near the school when they were last seen.