Removing Content From Google

This tool will guide you through the process of removing content that you believe warrants removal from Google's services (as of an applicable law). Completing this form will help ensure that we have all of the information necessary to investigate your specific inquiry and resolve it as quickly as possible.

If you have a specific complaint concerning Google, please visit www.google.com/support/go/legal for further information. Please do not use this tool to report issues that involve YouTube.

What Google product does your request relate to?

- AdSense
- AdWords
- Android Market
- Blogger/Blogspot
- Google+
- Gmail
- Google Music
- Image Search
- Orkut
- Picasa
- Web Search
- YouTube
- Other

Please note that a copy of each legal notice we receive is sent to a third-party partner for publication and annotation. As such, your notice will be forwarded to Chilling Effects (<http://www.chillingeffects.org>) for publication, with your personal information redacted.

You can see an example of such a publication at <http://www.chillingeffects.org/internationalnotice.cgi?NoticeID=1686>

Please specify the nature of your request:

- My confidential personal information is appearing in search results (e.g. name, address, phone number, medical records)
- A piece of content I am concerned about has already been removed by the webmaster but still appears among the search results
- I have found a site that is engaging in suspicious behavior
- I would like incorrect or inaccurate information to be removed from search results
- My full name or the name of my business appears on an adult content site that's spamming Google's search results
- A page appearing in Google's search results is violating my company's trademark rights
- One or more pages on my site have been removed due to a legal complaint, and I would like them restored
- I have a legal issue that is not mentioned above
