Attending JK on her calling back

Speaking without prejudice. Said that we were about to send a further Part 36 Offer in the sum of £350,000. We were very comfortable that this would not be beaten by the Claimant if this matter were to proceed to trial. However, there was an opportunity to resolve this matter now and the client was willing to pay something more -- not a stratospheric amount -- to resolve it this week on the basis that drew a line in the sand and that the deal was confidential.

Said that we appreciated it might be sensible from Taylor's point of view if Mark Lewis was back from holiday and we thought in those circumstances, it might be sensible to agree an extension of say 7 or 14 days for service of the Amended Defence. JK said she would speak to Mark Lewis.
