

- SEARCH
- MY PROFILE
- MY ACCOUNT
- TOP UP ACCOUNT
- LOG OUT
- FAQ
- TERMS & CONDITIONS
- COPYRIGHT
- CONTACT US

Edition 1GMDSUN 13 FEB 2005, Page 8
Shut out these scum;Leading Article

DRUG-dealing pimp Qema tricked his way into Britain posing as a fugitive in search of asylum.
 Of course, the evil Albanian was just another conman taking the Home Office for a ride.
 Indeed, only two days ago we learned how immigration service failings enabled a Ukrainian gang-master to pocket Pounds 5,000 a week from his band of illegal immigrants.
 Meanwhile, Tories claim Labour's spending on asylum and immigration has hit Pounds 8bn. That's YOUR money. The annual bill has soared ninefold since Tony Blair came to power.
 Yesterday, after our tip-off, police seized bogus asylum seeker Qema. Now we will be watching carefully to see whether the authorities REALLY crack down on this sly crook.
 Rightly, we must not slam the door on genuine refugees. But crafty Qema should never have got in.
 Keeping out scum like him is Home Secretary Charles Clarke's top task.

© News Group Newspapers Limited 2002. All rights reserved. You may read articles downloaded from The Sun and The News of the World archive on-screen or print them once for your own personal use. You may not make further copies, forward them by email, post them on an internet or intranet site or make any other use of them without written permission from The Sun Newspapers Limited. Please contact NI Syndication at enquiries@nissyndication.com.

Edition 3GXDSUN 13 FEB 2005, Page 29
Asylum's Mr Big
 MAZHER MAHMOOD

Cops swoop after we expose scandal
 6ft 4ins of lying drug-pushing gun-dealing pimping scum
 THIS is the moment a bogus asylum seeker was nicked yesterday-after the News of the World exposed him as a drug-pushing pimp who moonlights as a people smuggler and arms dealer.
 Towering 6ft 4in Qema CLAIMS he's a showbiz minder.
 But the lying crook-who blagged his way into Britain pretending to be a persecuted Kosovan-secretly makes a living dealing in COCAINE, GUNS, PROSTITUTES and fake PASSPORTS.
 Bribed
 The self-styled Mr Big bragged to our undercover reporters: "Where there's money, I'm there. I don't care if it's illegal."
 Qema, also known as Nick, came to Britain from Albania in September 1998.
 But he conned the Home Office into giving him political asylum by masquerading as a fugitive from Kosovo.
 He confessed: "I just made it up. The only way they could kick me out is if I bribed an MP or got involved in terrorism."
 Qema, 31, who scrounges DSS benefits and is on a Pounds 5,000 computer course funded by taxpayers, has made a career from crime.
 "He has several girls on his books," said blonde hooker Arora. "Our fee's around Pounds 250 an hour but Nick demands we pay him half. All the girls are scared of him. He also asks us to push drugs then supplies our clients."
 Qema works as a nightwatchman in London but gets housing benefit and income support to boost his illicit earnings.
 He met us at McDonalds at London's Liverpool Street station, arriving on his Pounds 10,000 Suzuki motorbike, and told us: "I'm an ex-police officer from Albania."
 After claiming he supplied drugs to celebs, Qema gave us three wraps of cocaine saying: "It's good stuff, Pounds 70 a gram."
 In another meeting, Qema turned into an immigrant smuggler. He said: "It's Pounds 1,200 for a travel document and I can get you a passport for Pounds 1,700."
 But evil Qema has yet another sideline. He told our reporter: "If you like I can get you a gun. They start from Pounds 300."
 Yesterday immigration and police officers, acting on our tip-off, pounced as Qema delivered the fake British passport.
 DO YOU know a scandal that Maz should expose? If so you can ring him any time on 020 7782 4402 or e-mail maz@notw.co.uk
 Our View: Page Eight

© News Group Newspapers Limited 2002. All rights reserved. You may read articles downloaded from The Sun and The News of the World archive on-screen or print them once for your own personal use. You may not make further copies, forward them by email, post them on an internet or intranet site or make any other use of them without written permission from The Sun Newspapers Limited. Please contact NI Syndication at enquiries@nissyndication.com.

New search

