Dear Professor Aynsley-Green

Thank you for your letter of 31st August addressed to Sir Christopher Meyer.

The chairman is currently out of the country. I am sure that he will wish to reply to you fully on his return. In the meantime, it would be helpful if you could send us some examples of the 'very high percentage of media stories that demonise, if not vilify, the existence of children and young people in our society'. It is certainly an extraordinary claim.

Representatives of the PCC will be attending the meeting on the 15th September with Ofcom, so it would be helpful to have the information by then.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely

Tim Toulmin
