Dear Mr. Bush,

I am just writing following a conversation that I had recently with Mrs Justice Rafferty.

I understand that you may have spoken to her about an initiative between the judiciary, the press and the Press Complaints Commission which is aimed at fostering a better mutual understanding. Mrs Justice Rafferty suggested that it might be a good idea for the PCC to undertake a similar dialogue with school heads – particularly in light of the strong protection that the Code of Practice affords to children. If you thought that it might be helpful – and I certainly welcome the proposal – then please do give me a ring so that we could discuss the mechanics. The direct line to my office is 020 74276272.

I look forward to hearing from you.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely
Tim
