

From the Director

Rt. Hon. David Cameron MP
Leader of the Opposition
House of Commons
SW1A 0AA

3 April 2008

I enjoyed your talk to the Journalists' Charity lunch at Simpson's the other day. I had not realised that someone was going to ask you about your views of the PCC, but was naturally pleased by your positive response to the question.

I did however wonder from your reply whether you had a specific experience in mind. It goes without saying that, should you ever need any private advice about any situation personal to you or your family – or indeed any briefing about the policy issues – I am always available to talk to you or one of your team. My numbers are 07803 597372 and 020 74381252.

With kind regards.
