Dear Colin,

Thank you for your letter of 22nd February concerning undercover journalism.

You might remember that I said we would also be making various inquiries of the industry as a whole. We are approaching the end of this now, and the Commission will shortly be considering all the information we have received, including your helpful letter, with a view to publishing a report into the matter.

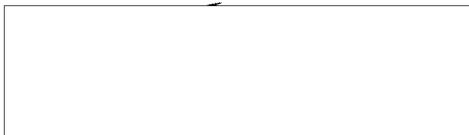

Please could you therefore let me know whether there is anything in your letter of 22nd February to which we may not refer publicly?

I look forward to hearing from you.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

Tim Toulmin
