

Pre-book your copies of the new Editors' Codebook

The 2nd edition of the Editors' Codebook will be published next month both online and - subject to demand - in hard copy format.

This official handbook puts the Code of Practice into the context of the case law developed over many years by the Press Complaints Commission, and it has now been updated to include rulings and Guidance Notes issued since 2005. It is an indispensable guide for editors, journalists and anyone using the PCC's numerous services about how the PCC works and interprets the Code.

In an attempt to assess the likely demand for the book in hardcopy format, we are inviting potential purchasers to register their interest at the special launch price of £5 per copy, inclusive of postage and packing. If you would be interested in hard copies of the book, please send an e-mail to tonia.milton@pcc.org.uk stating the amount of copies you would like. We will come back to you to confirm the order once a final decision is taken.
