

THE PRESS STANDARDS BOARD OF FINANCE

Sir Christopher Meyer reappointed PCC Chairman for second term.

The Press Standards Board of Finance Ltd (PressBoF) are delighted to announce that Sir Christopher Meyer has accepted their invitation to continue as Chairman of the Press Complaints Commission (PCC) for a second three year term from 1 April 2006.

Philip Graf, Chairman of PressBoF, comments:

"Sir Christopher, supported by his team at Salisbury Square, has proved an inspired appointment since taking up the chairmanship of the PCC in Spring 2003, having done sterling work to promote the benefits of self-regulation for readers, newspapers and magazines. I am delighted that we have him on board for a second term to face the challenges that lie ahead."

Sir Christopher said:

"I am very pleased to have been reappointed Chairman of the PCC for a further three years. I look forward to the opportunity this will give to build on the many changes of the last three years and to enhance still further the credibility of self-regulation and the service the PCC offers to the public".
